172nd Highland Games News

August 6 & 7, 2021

It is so exciting to be planning a full Highland Games – but it is also a little bit overwhelming. It will be a great feeling for all of us on Sunday, August 8 when the trailer is packed and the last barrel of trash is in the dumpster. We will feel that we have shared our Scottish heritage and traditions with the general public and continued the tradition of the Annual Highland Games.

We are doing our part(s). But, we need you to be at our sides and help us. Volunteer. Sell raffle tickets. Consider sponsoring a trophy. Volunteer. Buy a Games shirt. Ask a friend or relative to volunteer. Make a donation for the Golf Carts. Volunteer. Buy or sell some more raffle tickets.

Remember, the proceeds from the Raffle go toward scholarships. Raffle Chair, Danice Chisholm would love to send you more tickets. Just contact her. Volunteer. Read the whole issue of the Fling to see what else you might do to help make the 172nd Annual Highland Games totally wonderful. Our Field Chair, Stuart Kennedy has a nice article with a plea for help. Kelly Hemmerling, Trophy Chair is asking for donations to defray the cost of the trophies we give our dancers, athletes, pipers and tug of war teams. If you are not able to help or donate, please consider asking a neighbor or friend if they can. Young people will sometimes respond to the call for volunteering – if they are asked. Try it.

For 171 years the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit has sponsored a great event. Let's keep up the pace and make the 172nd Annual Highland Games successful. Let's show the world that the Detroit Scots are a tough group and that we did not suffer a setback during the pandemic of 2020.

If you have any questions, suggestions, or comments, please contact one of us.

Cathy, Jerry and Glen

HELP WANTED

Highland Games Field Crew

I am the Highland Games Field Crew Chair. My team and I setup tents, mark off boundaries, build the gates, setup the heavy athletic field, put up the snow fencing around the event, to name a few tasks. This takes us the entire week prior to actual day and a half of the Games. We show up at Greenmead about 8:00 am every day starting on Monday and work until 5:00 pm, with a lunch break, setting up the grounds for the Games.

It takes 10-15 people per day to get everything accomplished. Two years ago, we purchased a gently used 54 foot semi-trailer to replace our aging, smaller semi-trailer. This year, along with field set up, we will be building a shelving system into the new trailer, and transferring everything out of the old trailer. We are in need of a couple carpenter-type individuals that know enough about wood working to install a plywood shelving system in the new trailer. The walls of the trailer are lined with wood already.

In years past, we had a few young men that were part of the hired tent crew, that we employed to pound in snow fence posts. Unfortunately, we don't have access to that resource this year. We are needing help in several spots in and around the field, and its not all heavy work, putting up the snow fencing with zip ties is light and not a lot of lifting.

If you can spare a day or two or more or even a few hours during the day at Greenmead, we would really appreciate your help. If you have any particular field or trailer questions, please feel free to reach me at the email or phone number below.

(Don't worry if the 20 slots are filled, just call or email me to add your name to the list!)

Ticket Gates

Ticket Gate Chair, Shelly Kemp, is asking that you consider volunteering at the Ticket Gates, one of the most critical spots of the Games. Gates can get quite congested and need to be able to process the ticket process quickly to keep the crowd moving. Our Gates open at 8 am with a change of shift at 11 am. The biggest problem is getting the gates staffed in the afternoon when things slow down at the Gates. But people still walk up and need to purchase tickets..

Please consider volunteering to help at the Gates. Ask your family, neighbors, and friends to join you!

2021 Raffle Update

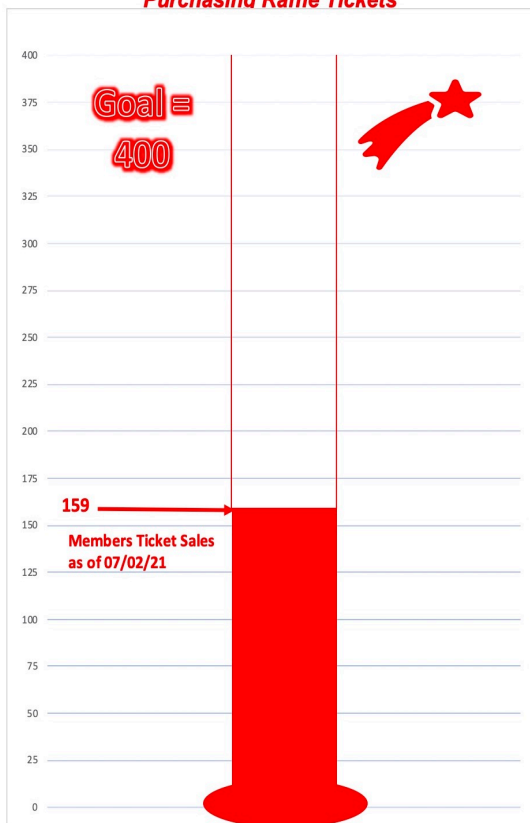

Thanks to our members who prepaid with their annual dues. There were 93 members who are prepaid in 2021, last year only 38 members prepaid for their Raffle Tickets. In 2020, we raised $14,995 from 270 members!

And our team at the 2021 Irish Fest sold $1000, twice the amount from 2020. Now, we just need everyone to buy their 4 tickets, plus another hundred members to sell even more tickets. Contact Danice Chisholm, Raffle Chair at danice@comcast.net or call 248-506-9242.

The students are eager to get back to their music and dancing.

July 1, 2021

Greetings Fellow Scot,

As you know, the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit is a 501(c)3 organization. All profits from our Highland Games go toward charities the Society supports. The organizations are local and national charities such as Alma College, The Salvation Army and The National Trust of Scotland. The William Kincaid Scholarship for Scottish Arts is the only one of its kind sponsored by a St. Andrew's Society anywhere. I know this is a source of pride for all of our members, especially as we have enjoyed hearing and seeing our scholarship recipients perform at membership meetings in the past.

Each year as Games time approaches, we ask members to support the Games by making a donation to sponsor a trophy or medal. Competitions include pipes and drums, heavy athletics, tug-o-war, Highland dance, best clan showcase and even the shortbread competition. The estimated cost of combined trophies and medals has exceeded $6,000 per year in the past.

Because there will not be a printed program this year and in lieu of conditions which are still somewhat in flux, we are not able to accept donations for specific awards in memoriam, but we are still in need of donations for trophies and medals for our competitors. Any amount that you could donate would help our Society maintain our tradition of awarding beautiful, high quality pewter plates and medals to the best of our competitors.

If you are able to donate, please send your check or money order (U.S. funds only)
Payable to "Annual Highland Games" with "Trophy Donation" in the memo line to:

Ceilidh Performance Time: 7:15 pm

Highland Games Performance Time: 1:00 pm

Pictus has been thrilling audiences all over the country with their unique take on primal drums & bagpipes. You can feel the thunder of the war drums and hear the call of the great Highland bagpipes and let the music lift your spirits, stir your soul and speak to the voice of your ancestors.

But Pictus is not simply a “bagpipe and drum band” for there are stories, tales and jokes to be told by Oengus Mac Og, the drummer & voice of Pictus. There is Irish and Scottish Highland dance provided by the energetic and beautiful Ceilidh Shillelagh. There are Irish pennywhistle and original compositions by Tallisyn. So stand up, sound your barbaric YAWP! and be transported by Pictus!

CrossBow is a high-energy Celtic band originating in Allendale, Michigan and has had the pleasure of sharing their distinct sound to a wide variety of audiences. The dynamic group initially met at Grand Valley State University as students and young musicians where they founded one of campus' first Celtic music organizations. While CrossBow can be heard at Irish and Scottish music festivals across the Midwest, much of the thrill in experiencing a CrossBow performance actually transcends the music itself. This excitement stems from the contagious joy and comradery shared between the players, and communicated directly with their audience. Apparent from the moment they hit the stage – these high-energy musicians naturally feed off of one another, creating a dynamic, wholly unique performance that shouldn't be missed.

Stone Clover are the rock band born in an Irish pub that your parents warned you about. Upbeat high energy takes on traditional songs peppered in with their infectious original songs are sure to get the crowd moving and singing along. The band has been combining different genres with Irish traditional instruments and rock and roll tones to create a style they have dubbed “Paddy Slag”.

2021 Shortbread Contest at the Highland Games

Think you make good Shortbread? Enter yours this year at the 2021 St. Andrew's Annual Highland Games, at Greenmead Historical Park! On Saturday, August 7th... just turn at least 12 Samples to the Welcome Center, before Noon. The Winner will be announced and the Trophy Presented after the Tug of War Contest on the Main Field. The Winner must submit their recipe.

We had a wonderful time judging the last 2019 Shortbread Contest and here are the Sweet results... Congratulations to our First Place Winner: Shirley Davidson (top picture)

The History of Scottish Shortbread

The story of shortbread begins with the medieval "biscuit bread". Any leftover dough from bread making was dried out in a low oven until it hardened into a type of rusk: the word "biscuit" means "twice cooked". Gradually the yeast in the bread was replaced by butter, and biscuit bread developed into shortbread.

Shortbread was an expensive luxury and for ordinary people, shortbread was a special treat reserved just for special occasions such as weddings, Christmas and New Year. In Shetland it was traditional to break a decorated shortbread cake over the head of a new bride on the threshold of her new home. The custom of eating shortbread at New Year has its origins in the ancient pagan Yule Cakes which symbolized the sun. In Scotland it is still traditionally offered to "first footers" at New Year.

Shortbread has been attributed to Mary, Queen of Scots, who in the mid-16th century was said to be very fond of Petticoat Tails, a thin, crisp, buttery shortbread originally flavoured with caraway seeds.

There are two theories regarding the name of these biscuits. It has been suggested that the name "petticoat tail" may be a corruption of the French petites gâtelles ("little cakes").

However these traditional Scottish shortbread biscuits may in fact date back beyond the 12th century. The triangles fit together into a circle and echo the shape of the pieces of fabric used to make a full-gored petticoat during the reign of Elizabeth I. The theory here is that the name may have come from the word.

Shortbread is traditionally formed into one of three shapes: one large circle divided into segments ("Petticoat Tails"); individual round biscuits ("Shortbread Rounds"); or a thick rectangular slab cut into "fingers."

Shortbread Petticoat Tails and Shortbread Fingers, shown below...

A Noble Scot!

Congratulations to Chicago Scots President Gus Noble as he has been recognized as an Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (OBE) by Queen Elizabeth II "for service to Scottish culture in the United States of America."

A Birthday Party!

Member David Stout celebrated his birthday on 24 June at Kilgour Center. It was the first private rental event since the pandemic had shut us down. With a lovely meal for roughly 30 people from Holiday Catering, everyone was treated to piping, dancing, and a variety of Scottish jokes and reminiscences. Of course, there was whisky for toasting - but only from distilleries that David had personally (and thoroughly) inspected.

After singing 'A wee deoch and Doris' and reading a Scottish poem, Beannacht, the event closed with a playing of Auld Lang Syne. It was a celebration not only of a birthday (David has reached the category of 'No longer the youngest'), but it was also a celebration for most, of the first time they could venture out into the world in a larger social setting.

Kilgour Center, with Kathleene hosting us for drinks, was a perfect venue.

IN OUR THOUGHTS

Edward A. Sproul, age 83, passed away June 22, 2021. Beloved husband of 46 wonderful years to the late Joyce, who passed in February 2021. Joyce & Ed were long time members of the St. Andrew's Society.

Off the Shelf... News about the Charles S. Low Memorial Library

The Library continues to receive requests for historical information about the Society, family members, and organizations or events that St. Andrew's may have been associated with in the past. The Library staff has done its best to respond to these individuals to get the information they are looking for. As mentioned at the last membership meeting, we will be reaching out to all of you in the future for your assistance in helping members and the community getting answers to their questions.

Once again the Library Staff would like to reach out to the membership in asking for any pictures, documents, or artifacts that you have relating to the St. Andrew's Hall in Detroit or the Society. It may be something tucked away in the attic or basement from yourself or a relative. You can either donate to the Library or bring in so that we can copy or take a picture and you take it back home.

The Low Library Book Club: Cathy McCullough Les (Chair)

Next meeting will be September 20th at 5:30 pm

Our next book will be Blackhouse (Lewis's trilogy, #1) by Peter May.

From acclaimed author and television dramatist Peter May comes the first book in the Lewis Trilogy - a riveting mystery series set on the Isle of Lewis in Scotland's Outer Hebrides, a formidable and forbidding world where tradition rules and people adhere to ancient ways of life.

When a grisly murder occurs on the Isle of Lewis that has the hallmarks of a killing, he's investigating on the mainland, Edinburgh detective and native islander Fin Macleod is dispatched to see if the two deaths are connected. His return after nearly two decades not only represents a police investigation, but a voyage into his own troubled past. As Fin reconnects with the places and people of his tortured childhood, he feels the island once again asserting its grip on his psyche. And every step forward in solving the murder takes him closer to a dangerous confrontation with the tragic events of the past that shaped - and nearly destroyed - Fin's life. (From BookBrowse.com)
