

The Highland Eling

JANUARY 2024

Chris MacKenzie, President

Bliadhna Mhath Ùr

Maricela and I hope you all had a Merry Christmas, and we wish you a healthy and prosperous new year. With this new year brings our 175th anniversary celebration.

As we enter this new year, I felt I should start at the beginning so to speak. So here goes:

We are the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit! We were founded in 1849, 175 years ago on the principles of Benevolence, Patriotism, and Fraternity. 35 men got together in a city which at the time had a population of about 12,000. They wrote our By-Laws and Constitution, which states: "For the relief of the indigent and unfortunate of our Countrymen, and for the promotion of harmony and good feeling amongst ourselves, we the undersigned Scotchmen and Descendants of Scotchmen, with Benevolence for our motto, do unite ourselves into a Society and agree to abide by the following Constitution of the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit."

This is what we do. And along the way we learn a little about ourselves and a little about each other.

While our main goal is to raise money for charitable purposes, many may feel like we always have our hand out. They aren't wrong. I feel the same way, but how do we do what we do without asking constantly? These days as people pull back on their discretionary spending we must work harder for less, which seems to go half as far. But this does not mean that you need to be reaching into your wallet every time we are looking for donations. No. Our goal is to help others, not hurt our own. Give what you can when you can. If you can only give your time, that is great, we will take it and be thankful. And so will the charities that we support.

Beyond our charitable dealings and the sense of pride and accomplishment in what we do and for whom we help, what drives you? What do you want to see more of in this Society? As you may have seen in the past year, we are trying a few new things. Some work and some don't. I personally want to see more whisky! We are always open to new ideas to get everyone involved.

Please connect with us on our social media channels to find out what is new and to share what we are doing. See you at the meetings!

Slainte!

Christopher MacKenzie,
President

A Big Thank You!

To Joe Cardosi, Helen & Ron Brisson, and Emily Wigodski for answering the call to donate Christmas Trees to the Kilgour collection.

In Our Thoughts & Prayers

- Dorothy Kilgo, life time member of the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit, died on Saturday, December 2. Dorothy was an active member for many years and could always be counted on to volunteer when she was needed. Dorothy was the sister in law of Past President, Peg Dunlop.
- Honorary member Dick Fromm passed away on December 8th under hospice care. His wife Nan is also a member. Dick is fondly remembered as a great Raffle Ticket seller for the Highland Games, especially during the Friday Fish Fries.

New Procedure: You can now contact our officers who need to learn of Thoughts & Prayer Requests on our Membership Home page: Click the link "Report Thoughts & Prayers Needed" and it allows you to fill out a form for notifying the Second Vice President, who is in charge of determining what the Society should do: send flowers, send cards, or make a donation.

December 21, 2023

Dear St. Andrew's Society,

Wow is all I can say.

Thank you so much for the $1,200 check received yesterday. As a member of a Whisky Tasting Club, I know how generous whisky tasters can be, but this is extraordinary.

We just had our quarterly zoom meeting with Erskine Veterans Hospital in Bishopton – I was so pleased to see that Elliot and other members of your Society have been able to visit Erskine and see the wonderful work that is done there. During our discussion, Ian Cumming, the CEO, explained the steps that Erskine were taking to address the reducing numbers of veterans and their different requirements. To that end, they are planning to open a veterans' facility in Forres to help the many veterans who live in the north of Scotland. Your generous donation will help American Friends of Erskine provide necessary equipment for this facility in 2024.

Once again, thanks to all of your members for your continuing support of American Friends of Erskine with special thanks this time to the whisky tasters!. An official receipt is attached, and this letter and receipt will also be mailed to you today.

On behalf of everyone at American Friends of Erskine, may I wish everyone in your Society and their families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Sincerely,

Alan J. Purves

Cultural Activities January Update

Firstly, let me say that I am so excited to have been elected your new Cultural Activities Director! Many thanks to my predecessor, Nancy Waters, for all her hard work the past two years, and for really taking me under her wing to help me learn and grow to take on this role.

Last month, guests at our St. Andrew's Dinner danced the night away to the tunes of The Classics Band of Michigan and dined on sumptuous traditional Celtic fare. Nancy did a fantastic job planning and executing the event, and she and I received only the best of feedback from those who were able to attend. Check out our website and Facebook page for pictures of our big night!

This month, we will be hosting a Burns Supper on January 20th. Tickets are $90 for members and their guests, and $100 for the general public. We were only a few tickets shy of a sellout last year, so I would encourage everyone who wants to attend to purchase tickets soon! They will be available only until January 10th. The evening will include a traditional Burns' night program, complete with Scottish food, including haggis of course, and three whisky toasts, as well as poetry and song. If you would like to perform at Burns night, please contact me right away at ewigodski@detroitscots.com.

The Red Roof Inn adjacent to the Kilgour Scottish Centre is offering a 20% discount to anyone who mentions Detroit Scots at the time of booking. Please ask for the general manager, Armani, when you are making your reservation.

February 10th, Cliff and Claudia Scott will be hosting a Tartan Tavern Pub Night featuring the band McSpillin. There is a $5 cover charge. Guests are welcome to bring their own food into the hall and there will be a cash bar.

FISH FRIES ARE BACK every Friday from February 16th thru March 29th from 4:30 - 7:30 p.m. (or until the food sells out!). Sign up to volunteer or just come have a delicious meal. Bring your friends and family!

This year in March, we are planning an excursion to the Detroit Curling Club to try out this fun sport that originated in 16th century Scotland. New member Kellie Evans, who is a member of the curling club as well, suggested the idea and has been instrumental in helping our committee plan this fun event! More details to come.

Other events coming up in the next few months include the holiday takedown on Jan. 6; our regular membership meetings on January 8, February 5, and March 4; Tartan Trivia on January 12 and February 9. Find more details www.detroitscots.com/tickets/

Thank you for all your support and enthusiasm for our cultural activities!

Off The Shelf... Celebrating the Charles S. Low Memorial Library

Scottish Author Highlight

Robert Burns

Robert Burns was born on January 25, 1759, in Alloway, just outside of Ayr. Also known as Rabbie Burns, he was a Scottish poet and lyricist who was known to write in the Scots language as well as a "light Scots dialect" to attract readers from outside Scotland. Not only did he write poems, but he was also a collector of folk songs, which he would revise or adapt them.

The national poet of Scotland, Burns was famous for the poem and song "AuldLang Syne" which is sung at midnight on Hogmanay (New Year's), as well as "Scots Wha Hae," "A Red, Red Rose" and many more. In his short 37 years, his impact on Scottish literature is felt to this day as many gather each year to celebrate his legacy with Burns night dinners. At Burns dinners--generally, celebrated around his birthday--a toast to him is made; the haggis is served; and his songs and poems are read, as his works are still celebrated.

So, as we approach the Robert Burns 265th birthday, consider the Burns poem "Selkirk Grace", considered a thanksgiving poem and said just as guests sit down to enjoy the first course at a Burns Night supper.

Selkirk Grace

*Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some wad eat that want it;
But we hae meat, and we can eat,
Sae let the Lord be thankit.*

*If you want to learn more about Robert Burns, then the Charles Low Library is for you, as it has a vast collection of books about Burns, including Life of Robert Burns, (Catherine Carswell), Robert Burns: A Biography with Selected Poems, (Sasha Behar) and Selected Letters of Robert Burns, (Robert Burns). Why not stop by and check out a book before celebrating him at the upcoming Burns Night Dinner?*

Low Library Book Club

The Low Library Book Club will meet next on February 12 at 5:30 p.m on Zoom. We will be talking about the novel Home by John MacKay.

Here's the description:

Built for the new age, the house stood boldly upright on the edge of the ocean withstanding the harsh blasts of a cruel century, nurturing and protecting the family within, watchful of hearts swollen or broken, dreams delivered and dashed. It had absorbed the tears and echoed the laughter.

The Heimat of the Highlands.

The sweeping saga of one family through a momentous century. Different people, divergent lives and distinctive stories. Bound together by the place they called home.

But one of them was missing, lost to the world. An unknown grandchild, born to a son who'd gone off to war and never came back. As the years pass through wars and emigration, social transformation and generational change, the search continues. And the questions remain the same: Who is he? Where is he? Will he ever come home?
