

The Highland Eling

January 2025

Chris MacKenzie, President

Fellow Scots,

January 2025. 176 years of the St. Andrew's Society. Just doesn't have the ring to it that 175 does, does it? No matter, we still move on and do what we do. What is that? We help others while at the same time learning about and spreading the Scottish culture. But we do not live in a vacuum. We are Scottish, or else we would not be here. But we cannot be Scottish just at the meetings. Now more than ever we need to extend the reach of the St. Andrew's Society. Make sure we are known. As much as they know our old hall downtown.

We have a lot planned this year, but it will be a tad less than our 175th. Let's get out there and show off our Scottish pride.

Gie it Laldy!

Christopher Robert Fraser MacKenzie

January Benevolence

The Society is making a $1,000 contribution to The Detroit St. Andrew's Royal Scottish Honour Guard. The St. Andrew's Royal Scottish Honour Guard was formed in 1995 by ten men and women of the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit. They were determined to fill a need for formal and dignified representation at Society events. The Guard act as formal representatives of the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit at monthly meetings, events and the Society's annual Highland Games. In addition to these, the Guard participates in weddings, funerals, and Kirking of the Tartans ceremonies. <https://detroitscots.com/honour-guard/>

Detroit Scots Flower Fund

DONATE TO THE FLOWER FUND

Fellow Scots,

As 2nd VP of the executive board, one of my duties is to care for the Flower Fund. It was brought to my attention that many people do not carry cash and therefore cannot contribute to the Flower Fund at the monthly meetings. Our wonderful tech person has set up a QR code for those members to make a donation without using cash. The QR code will be on the Bible stand. The Flower Fund is an important part of our program, helping to recognize those fellow members in a time of loss or suffering. It is our way to let them know we all care for them. I hope this new option is beneficial to those who wish to utilize it.

Slàinte,

Cultural Activities

We had a great turnout at our Deck the Hall event. Our volunteers never cease to amaze me! Together, we truly have it all. I hope that many of you will be able to help us take down the decorations on Saturday, 1/4/25 from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. I know it's not as much fun, but it is nice to reset our hall for the new year!

For our January 6th General Membership Meeting & Officer Installation, it's time for our annual Frank Hasse Chili Cook off! Please sign up to enter or to bring cornbread, condiments, and desserts! Two prizes: Judges' Choice and People's Choice. Winners will receive a personalized apron and bragging rights for the whole year!

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Those bringing dishes for donation should have them there by 6:15 if possible. We will be asking those individuals with special dietary restrictions and/or responsibilities in the opening ceremonies to attend the buffet first, then we will dismiss by table number. Votes will be tallied, and winners will be announced by the end of the meeting.

BURNS SUPPER TICKETS ARE NOW AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC!
Saturday, 1/25/25, 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Chef Roy and his staff are returning, this time serving up their delicious Scottish fare family style to your table. Tickets are currently on sale to all at the $100 public price. This is a fantastic opportunity to share our culture and the Society with new people! Maybe you know someone who just might wonder what this St. Andrew's Society is all about. Please engage with your community, and if you are on social media, please like, share, and comment on our event posts.

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

I did not submit a Fling article in December but wanted to share with you the good news that we had elected Marlene Ferus and Alicia Whitcome for membership at the November meeting. The December meeting was lovely with the Kilgour Centre decorated for Christmas. At the meeting, our members elected three applicants for a March initiation into the Society, Christopher Dunbar, Kristen Guinnane, and Alexander King. I am looking forward to meeting all of our elected applicants and helping them to become acquainted with Society life.

In December, we celebrated the achievement of Life Member status for three members. Mary Ann Carmichael is member #3784 initiated on 1/5/2004, Peggy Chassar is member #3768 initiated on 10/6/2003, and Ron Cunningham is member #3825 initiated on 10/4/2004. Congratulations to them and thank you for your commitment to St. Andrew's Society of Detroit.

As we begin 2025, I thought I would give you an update on the general status of our membership. We currently have 448 members.

- Life Members = 85
- Regular Members = 322
- Family Members = 21
- Associate Members = 13
- Honorary Members = 7
- Initiated in 2024 = 48

If you have not already renewed your membership for 2025, I hope you decide to continue your participation in the important work we do as a benevolent organization and in the fun times we have celebrating our Scottish heritage and culture by renewing your St. Andrew's Society of Detroit membership.

If you believe that you are eligible for Life Member status, please email me at membership@detroitscots.com.

Low Library Book Club

The Low Library Book Club has picked The Lost Lights of St. Kilda by Elisabeth Gifford for our February 10, 2025, meeting. Here is the book's description:

When Fred Lawson takes a summer job on St Kilda in 1927, little does he realize that he has joined the last community to ever live on that desolate, isolated island. Only three years later, St Kilda will be evacuated, the islanders near-dead from starvation. But for Fred, that summer is the bedrock of his whole life...

Chrissie Gillies is just nineteen when the researchers come to St Kilda. Hired as their cook, she can't believe they would ever notice her, sophisticated and educated as they are. But she soon develops a cautious friendship with Fred, a friendship that cannot be allowed to develop into anything more...

Years later, to help deal with his hellish existence in a German prisoner of war camp, Fred tells the tale of the island and the woman he loved but left behind. And Fred starts to wonder, where is Chrissie now? And does she ever think of him too?

When Fred makes his daring escape, prompting a desperate journey across occupied territory, he is sustained by one thought only: finding his way back to Chrissie. The Lost Lights of St Kilda is a sweeping love story that crosses oceans and decades. It is a moving and deeply vivid portrait of two lovers, a desolate island and the extraordinary power of hope in the face of darkness. 'A gorgeous, melancholy love story.' The Times

Our February 10 discussion will take place at 5:30 p.m. (EST) via Zoom. Contact Cathy McCullough Les for an invitation or if you have any questions.

Everyone is welcome!

Off The Shelf... Celebrating the Charles S. Low Memorial Library

The History of The St. Andrew's Society of Detroit 175th Anniversary Edition will be available to those that have reserved their copy. We are still waiting for the entire shipment of the book covers, but we do have a supply that will be available at the January Membership meeting. Salaina Crumb will have a table set up with the copies of the books. We did everything we could to keep the price low, so if you can bring cash or check for $20.00, we thank you for wanting to have a copy of this Anniversary Edition.

As we close the pages on 2024, the library committee is looking for another great year in 2025, serving the members, the Society, and the local community. The committee grew with the addition of 2 new members, Marci Hiruo and Kellie Beveridge, who both have jumped in and have been a great help in the library this past year.

The library is converting over to our library software that will allow electronic checking in and out of books, better inventory of all books, and material in the library and is the catalyst for the next big step.

In 2025, we will be able to make the books available online allowing access for looking for that special book. We will eventually be able to have all material in the library online.

Always looking to continually upgrade the library, the committee will be freshening the appearance of the library. Look for these changes in 2025.

Stop by the library to see all of the proclamations and tributes that were given to the Society in 2024. A special thank you to Michael Gordon for having these matted and framed. They look very nice.

The library is always open to suggestions and ideas, and a number of what we are currently doing has come from the membership. If you are interested in being a part of the library and would like to volunteer even if just a few hours, please let us know.

Julie Palmer,
Highland Games Chair

176th Annual Highland Games

As winter begins to wrap its quiet and cold arms around the land, I find myself leaning into that which is cozy and comforting. I want to curl up with my cats and enjoy a fire with the company of my family.

Dealing with challenges outside of gift wrapping, baking, and shopping finds me frustrated and disappointed.

December brought awareness of the financial challenges to our Games budget. This, combined with my post-Games observations, now impacts the vision for 2025.

Concerns include:

- Lower attendance
- Rising costs
- Decreasing sponsorships
- Unfilled committee chair positions
- Bloating in our rental specs
- Stagnant ticket prices
- Poor raffle ticket sales
- A tired musical line up

I have cut the Games budget by $20k, but have yet to identify all the impacted line items. What began as energetic optimism has devolved into a difficult, yet honest look at what I can change versus what relies outside of myself. The pain and disappointment we feel from this heavily depends on what we can do to counter it.

Opportunities:

- Increase ticket prices
- Increase beer prices
- Invigorate our Marketing and Public Relations efforts
- Grow our volunteer roster
- Find new sponsors
- Create a robust social media presence
- Create membership requirements around raffle ticket sales responsibilities

I remain optimistic at my core, as it is the foundation of my character. I trust this challenge will bring us together and inspire us to achieve that which feels beyond our capabilities. I know each one of us loves our Society so very much.

Please ask yourself. What are you willing to do to ensure the success of our Games? What gifts, skills and talent do you possess that can take us to the 176th and beyond?

Humbly yours,

Julie Palmer
